Felt Flowers

No Sew Felt Flower Ornament

Save up your scraps this holiday season and create pretty felt ornaments you can hang on your tree. This ornament from Tiffany Windsor will add a touch of fun and whimsy to your holiday decor. It doesn't get easier than this cool craft idea.

Materials:

- Aleene's Fabric Fusion Peel and Stick Tape (I also used scraps of Aleene's Fabric Fusion Peel and Stick Sheets and Aleene's Tacky Dot Singles)
- Felt – assorted colors
- Non-stick scissors
- Lavender
- Ribbon (for hanger)

Instructions:

1. Cut two pieces of felt for the base of your ornament. They do not have to be the exact shape and size at this step but should be similar/close in size. Cut several more layers of felt to create the flower. HINT: start cutting the smallest circle first, place it on next color and cut circle slightly larger. Repeat until you have the desired number of layers cut.

2. Apply Aleene's Fabric Fusion Peel and Stick Tape to outside edge of back of ornament.

3. Remove paper backing from three sides. (Leave top strip in place at this step.)

4. Press the two pieces of felt together.

5. Remember that the remaining paper strip should be at the top of your ornament!

6. Cut along outside edge to even up both layers. HINT: If you keep your cut slightly to the inside of the top piece of felt you will keep the glue tape from gumming up your scissors!

7. Use your tape scraps or pieces of your Aleene's Peel and Stick Sheets to glue each remaining layer together. HINT: always save your leftover scraps of Aleene's Peel and Stick Tape and Sheets to use on project like this!

8. Continue gluing each layer together until all layers are in place.

18 Crafts with Felt: Simple Craft Ideas, Felt Flowers & More

9. Apply Aleene's Peel and Stick Sheet to back of one piece of green felt. Cut to shape of leaf.

10. Remove paper backing from glue.

11. Press onto complementary color of green felt and cut approximately 1/8" from edge of leaf. This will give you a pretty dimensional leaf. Repeat to cut two leaves.

12. Using your glue scraps (or Aleene's Tacky Dot Singles) glue leaves in place between layers of flower.

13. Gently wedge open the top of your ornament.

18 Crafts with Felt: Simple Craft Ideas, Felt Flowers & More

14. Fill with lavender. HINT: be sure to press lavender down below glue line so that none gets stuck while gluing layers.
15. Peel off paper backing.

16. Cut ribbon to desired length for hanger, fold in half and place ends into glue. Gently press felt layers together to hold hanger in place and to close top of ornament.

Felt Floral Clothes Hangers

Kiss that boring closet goodbye! Save those wire hangers from the dry cleaners and make your own hangers from Heather Valentine. Floral craft ideas are the perfect way to add a touch of fun and whimsy to cluttered spaces.

Materials:

- Old wire hangers
- Tape
- Felt or polar fleece
- Needle & thread

Instructions:

1. Starting with two wire hangers, tape them together in a couple of places. This is just to keep them stable while you are covering them later.
2. Then cut a strip of felt 1" wide by the length of your hanger. *Be sure to measure all along the outside of your hanger and around the curve. Mine measured 42" but yours might be different.
3. Starting at the inside edge, wrap the felt around and blanket stitch in place. Continue to pinch and stitch all the way around. Clip end into a point, fold back and stitch the end in place. Bury your knot.
4. To create flowers, I cut circles from the felt. Then, I cut in a spiral pattern; leaving a round circle as the base.
5. Starting at the long end of spiral, wrap the strip around a pencil and hot glued in place. Click here for step by step directions from Dozi Designs.
6. Attach flower to hanger. You can attach with needle and thread or glue gun. Your choice.

Felt Floral Plastic Bottle Bracelet

Recycled plastic bottle crafts are the perfect excuse to go green! Make yourself a Felt Floral Plastic Bottle Bracelet from Heidi Borchers and save the environment at the same time. Save your water or beverage bottle and make something you can wear forever.

Materials:

- Aleene's Original Tacky Glue
- Plastic water bottle (smooth side preferred but select a water bottle to fit your wrist size)
- Craft knife
- Scissors
- Blue low mask tape
- Fabric (torn into 1/2" – 3/4" strips and ironed flat)
- Felt flowers (I cut my flowers using a die cutting machine)
- Hole punch (to cut flower centers)

Instructions:

1. I select different widths of masking tape and apply to the outside of the water bottle to use as a pattern line when cutting the bracelets.

2. Use a craft knife to cut between the tape lines then use scissors to cut a clean edge on the bracelets.

3. Remove blue tape from cut bracelets.

4. Apply a dab of Aleene's Original Tacky Glue to the inside of the bracelet.

6. Continue to add a dab of glue every inch to secure fabric to bracelet. Cut excess fabric leaving approximate 1/4" extra. Apply dab of Aleene's Original Tacky Glue to end of fabric and glue to inside of bracelet.

5. Press end of fabric strip into glue and begin wrapping fabric strip around bracelet.

7. Add dots of glue to outside of bracelet wherever you want to glue a felt flower.

18 Crafts with Felt: Simple Craft Ideas, Felt Flowers & More

8. Apply dot of glue to center of each flower.

9. Press felt dots in center of flower(s).

10. Continue until the entire bracelet is covered with flowers. Note: I like to tuck my flowers close together to give more volume to my water bottle bracelet.

Felt Flower Needlecase

This cute felt needlecase from Amy Law for Kreinik makes a great gift for an experienced stitcher or sewer, or someone just learning how to sew. Embroidered French knots at the center of the flower are an extra special touch.

2. Begin laying out your design on your base felt, starting with the silk in a square. Create "stripes" with your wool. Lay your base felt (open) on your needlefelting mat and begin felting. Move strands of the fibers as needed to create the design you want.
3. When your stripes and silk outline are well secured, add your green felt flower shape and a circle of silk for the center of your flower. Continue felting until all pieces are secured.
4. Embellish your felted design with metallic braid. Stitch around the outside of your design and outline the purple stripes. Then add a few French knots to the center of your flower.

Felt and Button Flower Card or Bouquet

Use buttons and felt to create colorful flowers for Mother's Day. Use your button flowers from Joan Gorman create a homemade card or a whole bouquet for Mom. Kids can help create these felt flowers.

- Small scissors
- Diagram below

Materials:

- Felt
- Buttons
- Pipe cleaners

Instructions for Card:

1. Draw a flower shape on to a piece of felt or choose a shape from the template and trace around it. I find a biro (ballpoint) works best on felt. If you want leaves, trace them from the template as well.

18 Crafts with Felt: Simple Craft Ideas, Felt Flowers & More

2. Trim the flower just inside the pen mark.
Make two tiny slits in the center of the flower with small scissors.
3. Take a pipe cleaner and bend one end about 5cm from the end into the shape of a hair pin with one long end.
4. Thread the pipe cleaner ends through two of the holes in a button then through the two slits in the flower. Twist the short end of the pipe cleaner under the head of the flower to secure it. If you are adding leaves, put glue on the stem and wrap it around the pipe cleaner near the flower at the top.

Instructions for Bouquet:

1. You'll need some card stock, decorative paper new or recycled, glue stick and craft knife.
2. Glue a piece of patterned paper to a card cut two horizontal slits in the center of the card about 5cm apart then thread the stem of the flower through the card (I did the cutting of the slits for the children using a craft knife.)
3. Note: Use multiple buttons for centers or stack multiple felt flowers. Also, be creative with the paper for the background - try the written side of an old postcard, newspaper, a page from an old book, wallpaper, gift wrap, etc.

Food Crafts with Felt

Felt Cake and Brownies

Make play food for kids from nothing more than a little felt. This felt cake and brownies craft from Kim Kenward is calorie free and super simple.

Materials for Brownies:

- 1 inch wooden blocks (available at any craft store)

- Ribbon and/or rick rack *optional, but it looks really pretty

Materials for Cake:

- 2 Styrofoam circles
- Pink paint and brush
- Pink felt
- Rick rack or ribbon

2. I then glued ribbon and/or rick rack around the diameter of the brownie and added a ribbon flower on top.

Instructions for Cake:

1. Glue Styrofoam circles together with hot glue and trace 2 circles onto felt and cut out.

2. Paint sides of Styrofoam with pink paint. I also painted the top and bottom but it wouldn't be necessary.

3. I stuck the Styrofoam in front of a fan to speed up the dry time. It was done in about 20 minutes (10 minutes per side). I then hot glued the felt to the top and bottom of the Styrofoam.

4. I added rick rack around the edges with hot glue and embellished the cake with mini ribbon flowers.

Felt iPad Cover

Say goodbye to scratches with this homemade iPad case. Layer strips of felt to create flowers and add them to this iPad cover from Heidi Borchers. This is a great way to keep your technology safe when you travel. Plus, the florals will always remind you of spring.

Materials:

- Aleene's Super Thick Tacky Glue
- 9" X 12" felt – colors of your choice (I used 3 colors green, 2 colors pink, 2 colors purple, orange, butterscotch and yellow)
- Scissors
- Toothpick
- Sewing machine (or needle and thread)
- Ruler
- Velcro (for closure)

Instructions:

1. I used two pieces of 9" x 12" felt for my iPad cover. Cut approximately 1" off one end of one piece of felt. This will allow for one piece to fold over the top end and Velcro close.
2. Stack the two pieces of felt, matching bottom edges, place iPad on top and mark stitching lines. Stitch together along stitching lines. If needed, cut away excess.

3. To create the floral design, cut strips of felt 1/4" wide. Using photo as guide, determine desired pattern.
4. For the daisy flowers, start with 2-1/4" strip of light pink. Dip end of toothpick into glue and glue ends of strip together. Next, cut 2-1/2" strip of darker pink felt. Glue ends over light pink petal. Continue to build each petal with strips of felt glued at end. Create 5 matching petals for the daisy.
5. For the flower center, apply glue to end of yellow strip and begin to roll. Keep adding a dab of glue every 1/2" and rolling to create desired size of flower center.
6. The leaves are created the same way as the flower petals.
7. The stems are 4 strips of felt glued together.
8. To create the sunflower, begin the same as for a flower center but continue to add various colored strips of felt to create a large center. The outside petals are created with one strip of orange felt.
9. To adhere the pieces to the cover, use toothpick to apply glue to the back of the assembled pieces and glue in place. When gluing in place, be sure to add "movement" to your stems and shape to your leaves. Be sure to leave enough room at the top so that you can fold over the flap.
10. Adhere piece of Velcro to the top felt to use for closure. Glue left-over felt strips to top flap.
