Hair Bows

Crochet Hair Bows

By: Melissa for The Hob-bee Hive

These adorable Crochet Hair Bows are so easy to make that you can easily have one in all your favorite colors in a little under an hour. Great for beginners and advanced crocheters alike, these cute bows are great for dressing up your hair do. Attach them to hair clips or create a simple headband to show off your new bow!

Materials:

- Yarn, in the colors of your choice
- Small crochet hook (anything smaller than a 6.5 sized hook should be fine)

Instructions:

1. For a smaller bow, chain 11. For a larger bow, chain 16.
2. Single crochet in second stitch from hook, and in each stitch following until the end (10, 15 single crochets). Turn.
3. Chain 1, single crochet in second stitch from hook and in each stitch following. Turn.
4. Repeat step three 4 more times, or more if you want a larger bow.
5. To assemble, fold bow in half hot dog wise and wrap yarn around the middle of the bow. Tie off to secure.
6. If you want to wear the bow in your hair, just wiggle a hair clip through the back of the wrapped part of the bow. I don't glue mine to the barrette, but you can if you want. I like to switch out my bows to match my outfit, and using a strong barrette like this works great for my thick hair.

No Sew Hair Bow

By: Savannah Starr

No sew fabric projects are perfect for everyone from beginners to craft experts. Grab your favorite fabric and Aleene's Peel & Stick Sheets for this easy accessory. Wear your No Sew Hair Bow the next time you hit the town.

Materials:

- Fabric (I recycled a cotton knit top)
- Aleene's Fabric Fusion Peel & Stick Sheets
- Scissors
- Aleene's Stiffen Quik Fabric Stiffening Spray
- Bobby pins (to put bow in hair)

Instructions:

1. This top got a lot of great wear but it was time for an upcycle! I cut it apart to create rectangles of fabric to the sizes that I wanted for this project.
2. For my bow, I started with a piece of fabric about 12" x 8". (You can enlarge or reduce the size depending on what size you want your finished bow.) Place fabric wrong side up on work table. Cut pieces of Aleene's Fabric Fusion Peel & Stick Sheets to fit the inside of your bow fabric. Remove the liner paper and stick the glue side down on the fabric.

How to Make Bows, Hair Pins and More: 36 DIY Hair Accessories

3. I like to use a craft stick to press around the edges of the Peel & Stick sheets. This helps to transfer the adhesive to the fabric.

4. Peel off the liner paper to expose the adhesive.

5. Fold in the sides of the fabric starting with the shorter sides first.

6. Then fold the other sides to the middle.

7. Cut a smaller rectangle for the center of your bow. Apply Aleene's Fabric Fusion Peel & Stick Glue to the center.

8. Remove liner paper to reveal adhesive.

9. Fold to center along long edges to create fabric strip.

10. Squeeze bow fabric in center.

11. Wrap fabric strip around center of bow.

12. Add a small piece of Aleene's Fabric Fusion Peel & Stick Sheet to end, remove liner, wrap around bow center overlapping until you have achieved desired look for center of bow.

13. If any of the end pieces are not even, tuck and re-fold them into the bow. If wanted, add a strip of glue to close the ends of the bow.

14. On fabric like this t-shirt knit that is really soft, I found that I wanted a little bit more body to my bow so I sprayed it with Aleene's Stiffen Quik. Let dry completely. I use bobby pins to pin the bow underneath my messy bun!

Sweet Vintage Bow

By: Jamielyn Nye for I Heart Nap Time

Try making one of these Sweet Vintage Bow projects and you'll soon have homemade baby hair bows in all colors of the rainbow! These vintage inspired felt bows are great no sew projects that are perfect for babies, teens, and even adults!

Materials:

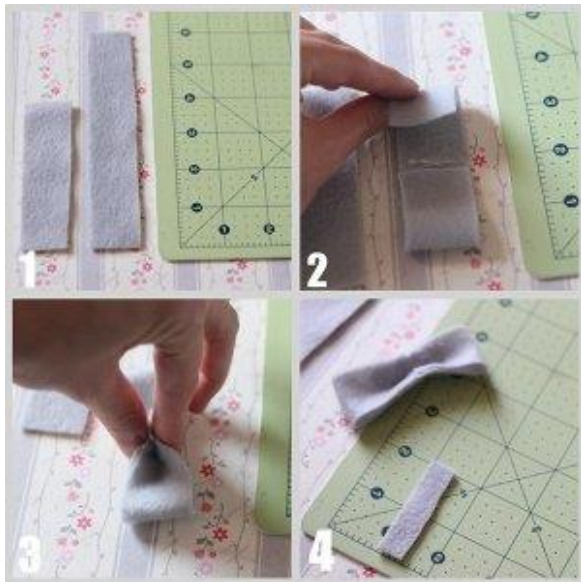

- Felt
- Hot Glue
- Scissors or rotary cutter
- Measuring tape
- Trim or lace

Instructions:

1. To start the felt bow, cut 2 pieces of felt (A) 1in x 6in and (B) 1in x 4in.
2. Take piece (A) and fold one edge into center and glue. This should measure 1 1/2 inches. Then take the other end and fold into center, bumping heads with the other edge.
3. Put a dab of glue in the center and pinch together. Hold for 10 seconds.
4. Cut a small piece of felt (C) 1/2in x 2in.

How to Make Bows, Hair Pins and More: 36 DIY Hair Accessories

5. Put hot glue on piece B.
6. Lay piece A on top of B. Make sure you have enough glue on there to make it stick well.
7. Cut off the extra felt (into the curve) with your scissors.
8. Cut ends to a point.

9. To finish the felt bow take piece C and wrap around the center of the bow.
10. Glue the two ends on the back side.

How to Make Bows, Hair Pins and More: 36 DIY Hair Accessories

11. Attach trim, lace, rhinestones to center (optional).
12. Attach elastic, pin or hair clip to the back of the felt bow if desired.

13. Enjoy your new felt bows! Felt comes in a variety of colors, so you can have one in every color!

14. Another fun way to dress them up is to sew or glue a ruffle on the back of the bow.

15. You can even get a little more creative and add some tulle!

Sassy Hair Bow

By: Sarah Forhan for Consumer Crafts

Are you looking for projects on how to make unique hair bows? Try making this Sassy Hair Bow from Consumer Crafts! It's always fun to make your own hair bows, because you can make them as fun and sassy as you are.

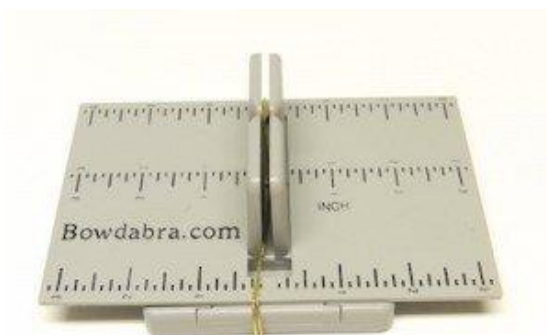

Materials:

- Mini Bowdabra
- Bowdabra Bow Wire
- Hair Bow Tool & Ruler
- Assorted Ribbon
- Pink Boa
- Black Boa
- Darice Finishing Accents
- Hair Clip

Instructions:

1. Begin by placing the Hair Bow Tool & Ruler on top of the Mini Bowdabra. Then cut a piece of 18" Bowdabra Bow Wire and fold it in half and place it into the Mini Bowdabra.

2. Following the instructional CD that comes with the Hair Bow Tool & Ruler follow the instructions to create a 5" wide Basic Bow with tails, a 4" wide Boutique Bow, and a small 3" wide bow tie bow. Bowdabra's instructional CD provides step-by-step instructions for making each of these bows along with a ribbon length chart to pre-cut your ribbon.

3. Scrunch the bow down with the Mini Bowdabra Wand.

4. While the bow is still in the Mini Bowdabra, thread the two loose ends of the Mini Bowdabra Bow Wire through the loop at the other end.

How to Make Bows, Hair Pins and More: 36 DIY Hair Accessories

5. Pull the Bowdabra Bow Wire tightly while the bow is still in the Mini Bowdabra. Gently pull the bow out of the Mini Bowdabra.

6. Separate the two loose ends of the Bowdabra Bow Wire and bring them around to the back of the bow and knot. Fluff the bow.

7. Use the Mini Bowdabra and Hair Bow Tool & Ruler to create the bottom of this bow. Add large loops of pink boa, black boa, yarn, and lace.

8. Once complete scrunch the bow and tie the Bowdabra Bow Wire. Trim away excess wire. Next, tie the top bow to the bottom bow using the Bowdabra Bow Wire from the first bow. Once tied twist the top bow several times to join the two bows tightly. Line an alligator clip with ribbon and use the remaining Bowdabra Bow Wire to attach the bow to the clip. Trim away excess ribbon.

9. Your funky hair bow is complete and ready to be worn!

Curly Hair Bows

By: Beth Madland for Caron Yarn

Crochet some bright and curly hair bows to tie around a ponytail. These beginner crochet bows can also be made into bookmarks or key chains.

Materials:

- Yarn: Caron International's Simply Soft Brites 1 skein color of your choice
- Crochet hook size G (4.0 mm)

Instructions:

1. Crochet chain 14 stitches.
2. Working in the top loop of each chain work 6 double crochets in the fourth chain from the hook.
3. Work 7 double crochets in each remaining chain (there should be ten more chains left.) Keep your hook in the final loop. You should have a nice curlicue shape.
4. With the crochet hook in a loop at the top of the curlicue, chain 30 more stitches.
5. Now you are going to create another curlicue. Work 6 double crochets in the fourth chain from the hook.
6. Work 7 double crochets in the next 10 chain stitches. There should be about 15 chain stitches in between the curlicues. Use this area to tie around a pony tail.
7. Cut the yarn off, pull the yarn through the final yarn loop and finish the project by weaving the loose string through the curlicue.

Looped Ribbon Hair Bow

By: Glue Dots

No little girl's hairdo is complete without a cute hair bow! This looped ribbon hair bow is adorable and easy to make, and you can use your child's favorite colors or festive holiday ribbon! These hair bows to make are so simple.

Materials:

- Glue Dots® Glue Lines
- 22" of 5/8" wide purple satin
- 22" of 5/8" wide gray satin
- 22" of 3/8" black grosgrain with white stitch
- 22" of 3/8" orange grosgrain with red stitch
- 2" French Clip
- Bowdabra Bow Wire

Instructions:

1. Begin by cutting 4 strands of ribbon of 22" long ribbon.
2. Attach the Glue Dots® Glue Lines to the center of the grosgrain ribbon. Press the satin and the grosgrain ribbons together to create your own unique style ribbon. Create two strands of unique ribbon.
3. Attach the ribbon strands to a large French clip. The French clip is the easiest to work with if you remove the centerpiece and place it to the side.
4. Dovetail and seal the ends of the two strands. Attach the end to the French clip using Bowdabra Bow Wire.
5. Create loops with the two strands. Once the two loops are formed wrap the wire once around the ribbon and the clip. Continue forming strands and crisscrossing the ribbon.
6. Create loops until you reach the end of the clip. Remember after each set of loops is formed to wrap the Bowdabra Bow Wire around the ribbon and the clip.

7. When you reach the end knot the wire and dovetail and seal the ends. Trim away excess wire and re-insert the metal centerpiece of the French clip.

Back to School Hair Bows

By: Sarah Forhan for Consumer Crafts

Learn how to make hair bows using just a Bowdabra and a ruler! Make Back to School Hair Bows in every color of the rainbow for a sweet addition to every outfit. A snap clip wrapped in ribbon makes these hair bows easy to fasten and gentle on hair.

Materials:

- Glue gun
- 3/8" wide grosgrain ribbon
- 2 snap clips
- Bowdabra Hair Bow Tool & Ruler and interactive CD
- 7/8" wide grosgrain ribbon
- Mini Bowdabra
- Bowdabra Bow Wire

Instructions:

1. First begin by hot gluing the 3/8" wide ribbon to the end of the snap clip. Place the ribbon onto the top of the snap clip and hot glue it in place.
2. Wrap the ribbon tightly around one side of the snap clip. Hot glue the ribbon onto the clip to hold it in place.

3. Next, wrap the ribbon around the point of the snap clip, hot glue and pinch the ribbon together. Bring the ribbon around to the other side.

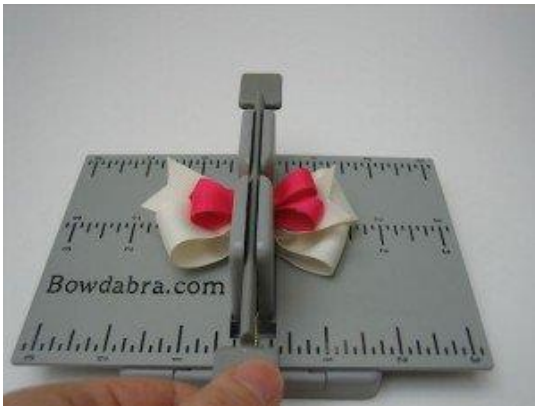

4. Wrap the other side of the snap clip tightly and hot glue the ribbon end. Make two matching snap clips.

5. Using the Hair Bow Tool and Ruler's interactive CD follow the simple instructions to make a Quad Pinwheel Bow using 7/8" wide Grosgrain Ribbon and add a small Boutique Bow using the same 3/8' wide ribbon that you lined the snap clips with.

6. Make two matching bows using the Mini Bowdabra, Hair Bow Tool and Ruler, and Bowdabra Bow Wire.

7. Trim away extra Bowdabra Bow Wire, hot glue a finishing ribbon onto the bows, and then hot glue the bows onto the metal ends of the lined snap clips.

8. Make several bows using different colored ribbon to match your daughter's outfits.

Beach Pebble Barrette

By: Maria Chatzi for FaveCrafts.com

Whether you're having a beach wedding or just attending, the Beach Pebble Barrette will look wonderful in your hair. The lace detail adds a delicacy to the barrette, which will make it look perfect for either a dress up or casual occasion. You can also make the barrette your own by choosing different sized and colored beach pebbles. You'll spend more time waiting for the glue to dry than actually constructing this DIY hair clip. Add to your hair accessory collection with this adorable pebble craft.

Materials:

- A metal barrette hair clip base
- 3 small, rounded and smooth beach pebbles (any pale colors of your choice)
- A piece of lace ribbon, same width and length as that of the barrette clip
- Strong craft glue
- 2 (or more) white or off-white pearl beads

Instructions:

1. Glue the lace ribbon carefully onto the barrette clip base.
2. After the glue has dried, glue the beach pebbles one by one, starting from the central one. Wait until the glue hardens every time before you proceed to the next pebble.
3. Add the pearl beads and wait for the glue to dry.

Kanashi DIY Flower Hair Clip

By: Ann Koeman

It's never been so easy to create DIY hair bows. Create your own Kanashi DIY Flower Hair Clip using only a few supplies. Best of all, this project isn't expensive to make. Create an easy to hand-sew flower clip to put in any girls hair. Japanese Kansas flower style using scraps of fabric and template. DIY hair accessories are perfect for moms who are constantly looking for cute yet age-appropriate wearables for little girls. Since little ones tend to lose their hair accessories so often, this is a great alternative to more expensive store-bought items. Make a bunch and have your little girl wear a new one every single day.

Materials:

- 6 pieces of cotton fabric squares about 4inches square
- Sewing thread and a needle
- Scissors
- Kanzashi Flower Maker (Round Petal/Small Size) template #8480 from Clover MFG. Co. Ltd.
- Glue gun and glue stick
- Button
- Hair clip

Instructions:

1. Fold a square of fabric into triangle, and insert inside template and snap close.
2. Trim off excess fabric poking out.
3. Thread needle with single strand of thread about 24 to 36 inches long. Knot end of thread.
4. Insert needle into open space labelled #1 start, pull through the other sided come out on (1).
5. Insert needle into number (2) and continue going in and out following numbers on template.
6. After reaching (8) open template and release fabric with thread.

7. Pull on thread to create a petal. Do not cut the thread.
8. Keeping first petal on the thread continue making 5 more petals with the same thread.
9. When six petals have been completed pull and adjust flower by pulling on both ends of thread to create a ring with the petals.
10. Secure with a knot.
11. Once the flower is formed attach a button to the center with some hot glue (or sew on by hand).
12. Using some more hot glue adhere the flower to the hair clip end. (Note - you could also attach the flower with some thread and a needle to the hair clip if there is a small hole on the clip).

Beaded Bobby Pins

By: Tamara from Etceterize

Add some sparkle to your hair do with these Beaded Bobby Pins. Made with small beads, wire, and some simple hair pins, these hair accessories are easy and fun to make for girls of all ages. They also make great gifts and are fun to do with a group of friends!

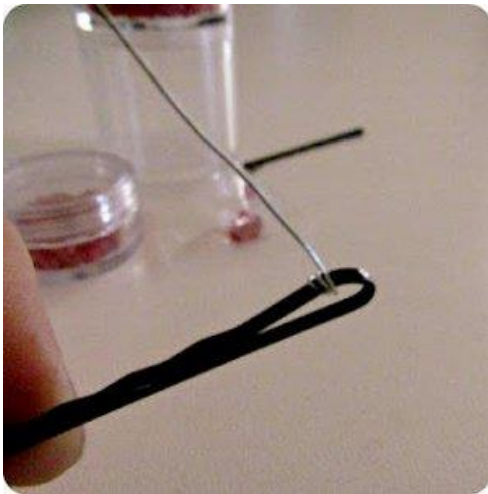

Materials:

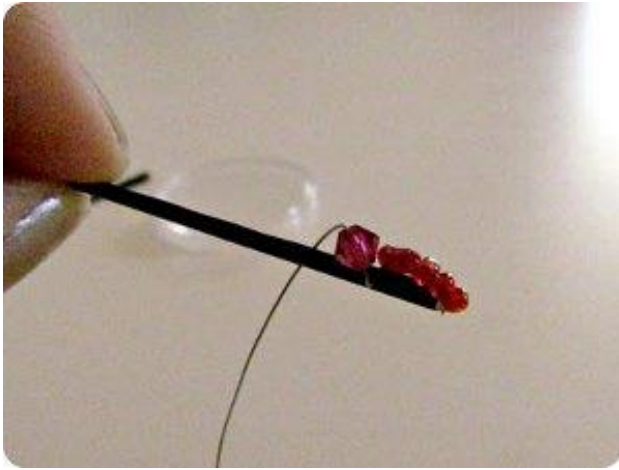

- Wire cutters
- Straight nose pliers
- Beads
- Bobby pins
- Wire

Instructions:

1. Using your wire cutters, cut a piece of wire around 8"-9" (20-23 cm). This isn't exact because it depends on the length of your bobby pin and the size of beads that you're using. A good estimate to use is about 3 times the length of your pin.

2. Wrap the end around the rounded end of the bobby pin a few times and squeeze it down with your straight nose pliers. Make sure the wire isn't sticking towards the inside of the pin or it will catch on your hair.

3. Start adding your beads. As you add beads wrap the wire around the pin, leaving the underside free of beads.

4. Just keep adding and wrapping until you get to the bottom of your pin.

5. At the end just wrap the wire around itself 3 to 4 times and once again squeezing the end down with your fingers or straight nose pliers.

Easy Peasy Hairpins

By: Cheri Heaton for I Love to Create

These Easy Peasy Hairpins are similar to the fashionable hair accessories for women sold in Anthropologie stores...but much less expensive! These easy DIY cheap hair accessories can be made with ease! And no one will know the difference!

Materials:

- Hairpins and clips (you can find these at craft stores, like Hobby Lobby)
- Vintage earrings
- Aleen's SUPER Gel Adhesive
- Wire cutters

Instructions:

1. I used some wire cutters to snap off the back of the earrings.

2. We brushed on some adhesive and added the earrings.

3. You only have to hold the pin to the earring for a minute or two until it's really on there and dry.

4. Buttons also work well for this project. You just have to use ones that don't have a loop on the back.

Scrap Fabric Rosette Barrette

By: Haley Pierson-Cox for The Zen of Making

Making fabric flowers is a cinch with this tutorial. Make these Scrap Fabric Rosette Barrettes as a cute hair accessory that also uses up scraps of fabric.

Materials:

- Fabric strips
- Felt scraps
- Barrettes or hair clips
- Thread
- Hot glue gun
- Fabric scissors
- Sewing needle

Instructions:

1. Cut fabric scraps into strips. You can adjust the size of your rosette by changing the length and width of the strips.

2. Roll fabric strips into rosettes. Fold the fabric strip in half horizontally. Fold one end over several times, creating the center. Holding on to these folds, begin wrapping the fabric around the center (the fabric will build on itself). To create the rose petal texture, twist the fabric as you wrap. When you reach the end of the fabric strip, place a dot of hot glue on the back, then fold the fabric end over and press into place.

3. Cut circles out of felt. (Make them just large enough for your rosettes to fit.)

4. Glue rosettes to the felt using your hot glue gun.

5. Cut off any extra felt.
6. With your needle and thread, secure the rosette group to the hair clip. Make sure that your first stitch goes through the felt so it stays securely in place.

7. Tie off the thread, and it's ready to wear!

Glittered Snowflake Barrette

By: Savannah Starr for FaveCrafts.com

Add some glitz and glamor to your winter accessories with this fun and sassy Glittered Snowflake Barrette. By layering snowflake designs, you can create your own unique snowflake that looks beautiful sitting softly in your hair! If you have smaller snowflakes, you could use the same technique to create fun earrings and necklaces for you and your friends.

Materials:

- Aleene's Fast Grab Tacky Spray
- Aleene's Spray Acrylic - Gloss
- Tulip Fashion Glitter - dark blue, light blue or colors of your choice
- Glove
- Newspapers or box lid (for spraying glue onto buttons)
- Paper plates (for collecting glitter)
- Glitter snowflake ornaments
- Snowflake buttons
- Pearl bead
- E-6000 Glue
- Clothespins
- Barrette

Instructions:

1. To glitter your buttons, working in a well ventilated area, spray one side of buttons with Fast Grab Tacky Spray. Sprinkle with glitter. Shake off excess. Let dry. If desired, repeat glittering on other side of buttons.
2. Spray glittered pieces with Gloss. Let dry. This will help to keep the glitter from falling off when you wear your barrette.
3. If needed, cut hanger from snowflake ornament. Apply E-6000 Glue to back of barrette. Glue to back of ornament, holding in place with clothespins while the glue dries.
4. Continue to glue glitter snowflakes on top of ornament and finish by gluing pearl on top.

5. Keeping the clothespins in place, suspend the barrette over the top of a jar to hold it flat and does not wobble while all the glue dries.

Hair Accessories with Buttons

By: Blumenthal Lansing Co.

Show your fashion side with your stylish hair. Create your own hair accessories using buttons. You can make your own headband and barrette.

Materials:

Headband

- 1/4" wide elastic headbands, 3 bands
- Favorite Findings Ocean #434, 1 bag
- Confetti button #3203, 1 card
- Glass e-beads, turquoise
- Needle and thread to match
- Scissors

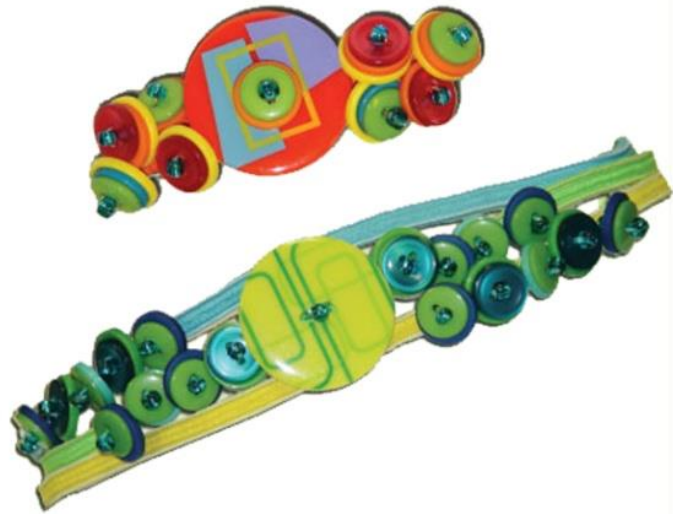

Button Barrette

- 4" metal barrette
- Glass e-beads, turquoise
- Favorite Findings Citrus #426, 1 bag
- Confetti button #3220, 1 card
- Ribbon scrap
- 22 gauge wire
- Scissors
- Wire cutter
- Needle nose pliers
- Ruler
- Glue

Instructions:

Headband

1. Center Confetti button on one headband and stitch in place with needle and thread with an e-bead in center of button. Stitch in place, and carefully knot on back.
2. Stitch 4 stacks of 2 or 3 smaller buttons - also with beads at the center of either side of the large button as above. Alternate button colors and stacks. Repeat with 4 stacks on the other side of the large button.

3. On a second headband, stitch 5 stacks of smaller buttons as before. Repeat with 5 stacks on a third headband.

Barrette

1. Glue a small piece of coordinating ribbon to top of barrette.
2. Cut 9 pieces of wire 6" long. Thread the wire up through one hole of a Confetti button, two smaller stacked buttons, then through a bead. Thread the wire down through the buttons to the back. Even out both ends of the wire and twist at the back of the button to secure.
3. Repeat step 2 on each 8 sets of smaller stacked buttons alternating colors.
4. Wrap the wire ends of large button stack around the barrette in the center, and twist the wire ends together under the button. Cut the twisted wires to about a half inch, and curl the ends up under the button with the pliers.
5. Repeat step 4 with the small button stacks, arranging 4 stacks on either side of the center button to cover the barrette.

Fashion Hair Pins

By: Anna Smith

These adorable hair pins are the perfect stand in for the pricey ones seen in upscale department stores. They're super easy, quick and inexpensive to make. You can coordinate them with your (or your little one's) wardrobe, and a set makes a fabulous gift!

Materials:

- Hot glue gun & glue
- Needle nose pliers
- Bobby Pins with Pads
- Decorative Brads

Instructions:

1. Plug in the glue gun to heat the glue.
2. Meanwhile, select the brad you will use on your hair pin.
3. Bend the metal tacks on the back of the brads to flatten them.
4. Place some hot glue on the bobby pin pad.
5. Place the flattened brad onto the hot glue and add a little pressure to hold secure. Let dry. That's it!

DIY Headbands

Easy DIY Crochet Headband

By: Olivia from Hopeful Honey

These two lovely patterns will show you how to crochet a flower as well as how to crochet a headband in no time at all. This Easy DIY Crochet Headband is a simple hair accessory that looks great in the springtime. With flowers in your hair, you'll feel footloose and fancy free, and your friends will love the cheeriness of your new accessory. Learning how to crochet flowers is a fun task that will put your mind at ease and help you feel ready to conquer any other tasks of the day.

Materials:

- 5.00mm Crochet Hook
- 4.50mm Crochet Hook
- 2 Colors of 50g 8ply {DK} Yarn
- Scissors
- Tapestry/Wool Needle

Size: This headband fits all sizes.

Instructions:

Headband

1. Start of by taking your 5.00mm crochet hook and making a Slip Knot, and then crochet 75 Chains. You can easily adjust this headband for a child by only chaining 61 chains.
2. Row 1 Chain 2, skip 2 chains from your hook, then crochet Half Double Crochets all across into every chain.
3. Row 2, 3, 4 Chain 2, half double crochet into every stitch across.

4. When you've completed all the rows, connect the two ends of the band together to create a circle and Slip Stitch them together.
5. Fasten off, and weave in loose ends.

Flower

1. Start off by taking your 4.50mm crochet hook and making a Slip Knot, then crochet 76 Chains. {If you'd like your flower to be larger simply add sets of 3 chains till you've reached your desired length.}
2. Row 1 Chain 2, skip 2 chains from your hook, then crochet Half Double Crochets all across into every chain.
3. Row 2 Chain 4, skip 2 stitches and then crochet a half double crochet into the third stitch.
4. Chain 3, skip 2 stitches and then crochet a half double crochet into the third stitch. Repeat the last step all across.
5. Row 3 Chain 3 then crochet 3 Double Crochets into the first loop you made in the previous row. Chain 3 then slip stitch down into the loop. Then make a slip stitch into the next loop. Keep repeating this order of stitches all across finishing off with a slip stitch. These will be your rose petals.
6. After doing the last double crochet of your last petal, chain three and do a slip stitch down into the loop.
7. Fasten off but make sure to cut the strand of yarn at about 30cm {You'll need it later on}.

8. Now taking a different color, make a slip knot and push your crochet hook into the first stitch of the long flower strip you just created. Then Slip Stitch into every single stitch till you reach the end of the flower strip.
9. On your last slip stitch, fasten off and weave in any loose ends.
10. Now lay your long strip of petals down in a circle, working your way in. If you want the flower flattish, make it quite open and loose, almost as loose as the one in the photo below, or if you want it thicker and chunkier you'll have to lay it tighter and more on top of each other. When you've decided which way you'd like it, take your wool needle and just start sewing it together using the 30cm strand of yarn you leftover before.

11. Once you've sewed your flower together take your wool/tapestry needle and work the flower over the slip stitched part of the headband. This will give the bow a good base while hiding the slip stitches.
12. Fasten off, and weave in loose ends.

Tropical Teal Crocheted Headband

By: Olivia from Hopeful Honey

Girls of all ages will love this Tropical Teal Crocheted Headband. Embellished with a stunning crocheted flower, this cute headband is perfect for year-round accessorizing. You can make this lovely crocheted headband in any color combination you'd like, and it looks great with all hair styles. Perfect for beginners and advanced crocheters alike, this fabulous Tropical Teal Crocheted Headband makes a wonderful weekend project.

Materials:

- H or 5.00 Crochet Hook
- DK or 8ply Yarn (Dark Spring Green, Scarlet)
- Scissors
- Tapestry Needle
- 7x7 Inch Foam Board
- 1x1 Inch Button
- Pins
- Iron or Spray Bottle

Instructions:

Band

1. Start of by using color 1 to make a Slip Knot. Chain 8, then push your crochet hook back through the sixth stitch and make a Single Crochet.
2. Continue to make single crochets till you get to the end of the row, then crochet 2 chain stitches and go back into the second last crochet stitch you did. When crocheting into the stitches, go through the front loop only, this will create a ribbed band.
3. Continue making single crochets, row after row. Now it's time to measure your head circumference! You'll need to make your band 1.5 inches (4 cm) shorter than your measurement so that your headband will fit snugly and not slip off your head. Mine measured 20 inches (51 cm).

4. When you've completed all the rows, connect the two ends of the band together to create a circle and Slip Stitch them together.
5. Fasten off, and weave in loose ends.

Big Flower

1. Start of by using color 2 to make a slip knot. Chain up 2, then crochet 8 single crochets into loop. Join with a slip stitch to top of chain 2.
2. Chain up 2, crochet 2 single crochets into every stitch all around. Join with a slip stitch to top of chain 2.
3. Chain up 14 slip stitch into next stitch.* Repeat from the * mark all around. After last slip stitch, fasten off and weave in loose ends.

Small Flower

1. Start of by using color 1 to make a slip knot. Chain up 2, and then crochet 8 single crochets into loop. Join with a slip stitch to top of chain 2. Chain up 12, slip stitch into next stitch. Repeat from the * mark all around. After last slip stitch, fasten off and weave in loose ends.

Finishing

1. After you've finished both flowers, you'll need to Block them. Start by taking a cup or round bowl and mark a circle on your foam board. Taking your pins, pin down your flowers. Now to block them you can either hover your iron over them and steam them, or spray them with a spray bottle. Steaming usually dries quicker.

2. After they've dried, unpin your flowers, and select your button. Place your band at the bottom, your large flower on top of that, and your small flower and button on top of that. Sew everything together with color 1 yarn. Fasten off, and weave in loose ends. Sew it right on top of the seam so it doesn't show.

Organza Floral Headband

By: Reese Dixon for ReeseDixon.com

Give every outfit a floral flair with this Organza Floral Headband. This easy-to-make floral headband is great for girls of all ages and is a fun way to liven up both casual looks and dressy outfits. This project does involve working with an open flame, so make sure kids and teens have parent supervision when making this project.

Materials:

- Headband
- Fabric to wrap around the headband (I chose taffeta because it dyes beautifully)
- Seed beads
- Beading needle
- Thread
- Candle
- Organza fabric for the flower
- Dye

Instructions:

1. The flowers themselves are made in just the same way as before. Cut five or six blobby five pointed flowers – like vague gingerbread men – and hold them over a candle until the hot air melts the edges and curls them up. Vary how much curl each flower gets by melting some more than others.

2. Stack up your finished flowers and tuck them inside each other until you're satisfied with how they look. Be sure and turn the flowers as you stack them so that the petals aren't all just lined up straight on top of each other.

3. Thread a beading needle and come up from the bottom of your flower stack. To make the stamens thread 10 or 12 beads onto your thread then go back down close to where you came up. Repeat this process as often as you'd like until you're satisfied with the look. I like to make an odd number of stamens – since nature is very odd you know, and then scatter some smaller beads around and stitch those in place to look like speckles of pollen.

4. This time I wanted to experiment with dying my flower. I wanted to get a variegated look like you see on so many roses and tulips, where the color starts out bold on the tips and fades down as you reach the base of the bloom. I got to play with Rit's new Color Perfect dye which is a new kind of dye that you can just apply directly to the fabric. My kit came with a spray attachment that fit directly onto the bottle, so with a few squirts I was done. No rubber gloves, no big pots of dye, just squirt and set aside to dry.

5. Once it dries you're left with a very delicate speckled variegation. I only sprayed it on the very edges, so as the fabric absorbed the dye it automatically made that fading effect I was hoping for.

6. I decorated my headband by dyeing the taffeta on the stovetop with Pearl Gray. The edges of the fabric took on more dye than the middle, so I ripped a strip off and wrapped it around the headband letting that dyed edge create a stripe effect.

7. I cut a circle of felt large enough to cover all my stitches on the back of the flower and used some liquid glue to stick it to the headband, and more glue to stick the headband to the flower. The felt circle should be big enough to reach around the headband and glue on to the flower. Let it dry.

8. Where you put the flower on the headband makes all the difference for how you can wear this. My flower is pretty giant so I glued it down on the side where it would rest just above my ear. If you make the flower smaller you can attach it closer to the top which is great for younger girls, and putting it somewhere in between when the flower is big gives you a fascinator effect.

Materials:

- Notions Burst Blossom
- Heirloom Buttons
- Moda Basics Fabric
- Headband
- Swatch of fabric
- Twine
- Hot Glue Gun

Instructions:

1. Gather the 5x5 inch fabric in the middle and secure with twine.
2. Attach the ribbon on the side of the head band using a tacky tape or a glue gun.
3. Add the flower and top with a button.

Doily Stenciled Headbands

By: Gloria Uhler for Domestic Diva

Use a simple doily to create a beautiful pattern on a regular satin headband. These Doily Stenciled Headbands are great gifts for young girls and a sure fire way to add a little pop of color to your favorite outfit. The cute colored flowers are so easy to make and can also be used to jazz up purses, scarves, jackets, and much more.

Materials:

- Aztek airbrush
- Grape Purple paint
- Orange paint
- White paint
- Plain white satin headband
- Organza fabric - approximately 5" x 45"
- Fast Finish Decoupage
- Fabri-Tac glue
- Wide brush
- Scissors
- Rotary Cutter with decorative edge wave blade
- Scotch tape
- Craft sticks
- Painters tape
- Decorative button
- Wire cutters
- Small piece of felt or fleece
- Repositionable stencil adhesive
- Rectangular paper doily
- For Purple Headband - Sheer white ribbon 3/8" x 36"
- Freezer paper

Instructions:

1. Decoupage is used in this project to change the texture of the delicate fabric, giving the flowers on each headband body and preventing their edges from fraying. Applying the decoupage is easy work if you first bond the fabric to freezer paper. Do this by ironing the shiny side of the paper to the wrong side of the fabric. This only takes seconds.

2. After bonding, pour some decoupage in a shallow container and use a wide brush to apply it evenly to the fabric. Let it dry completely.
3. Using a rotary cutter with a decorative wave blade, cut seven 3" squares from the bonded fabric by tracing a Post-it note. Cut an eighth square slightly smaller than the others.
4. Spray four of the large squares and the smaller one, applying purple paint more heavily on the outer edges and fading to no paint in the centers.
5. When the painted squares are dry, remove the fabric from the freezer paper by attaching a piece of tape to one of the fabric corners and pulling. Also remove the paper from the unpainted fabric squares.
6. Spray paint the sheer ribbon purple. Set aside while you create the flower.
7. Fold all squares in half twice and cut along the folds to within 1/8" of the center. This will create the four petals of each flower section. Make several 1/4" deep cuts close together on some of the wavy edges.
8. Lay all petals flat and apply a thin line of Fabri-Tac to one side of each near the center.
9. Fold the center edges of the petal together until they hold.
10. Repeat on all four petals of each flower section.
11. Cut a piece of felt into a small square measuring about 1/2". Using the glue, attach the center of a large painted flower section to the center of the felt. Add three more sections with centers facing each other. Attach the unpainted flower sections on top of the painted ones in the same way.
12. Finish assembling the flowers by centering the smaller painted section over the others. Apply pressure in the center with a craft stick to adhere all layers.
13. Cut the shank from the back of a decorative button with wire cutters. Glue the button to the center of the flower.
14. Glue one end of the painted ribbon to the inside of the headband and wind it around the band leaving 1/2" between each wrap. Glue the opposite end of the ribbon to the inside of the band.
15. Mix white paint with orange to achieve the shade you like.

16. Cut a corner from a rectangular paper doily large enough to cover a three-inch square. Spray stencil adhesive to the right side of the doily.
17. Glue the felt base flower to the side of headband.
18. Press the doily piece on top of a fabric square with three corners matching. Spray with orange paint. Repeat with all squares. When the squares are dry, remove the fabric from the freezer paper.
19. Fold all squares in half twice and cut along the folds to within 1/8" of the center. This will create the four petals of each flower section.
20. Apply a small line of Fabri-Tac to one side of each petal near the center. Fold the edges of the petal together until they hold. Repeat on all four petals of each flower section. Cut a piece of felt into a small square measuring about 1/2". Using the glue, attach four large flower sections to the middle of the felt with centers facing each other. Attach four more on top.
21. Finish assembling the flowers by centering the smaller painted section over the others. Apply pressure in the center with a craft stick to adhere all layers.
22. Spray the front of one lacy edge of the doily with stencil adhesive. Place the sticky side against the headband with the center of the doily and center of the headband matching. Use painters tape to hold in position if necessary.
23. Cut away excess doily and cover the headband completely with the decorative paper. Mask off the underside of the band with painters tape which will also help to hold the doily strip in place. Spray the doily with orange paint.
24. When the paint is dry, remove the tape and doily and glue the felt flower base to the side of the headband.
25. Cut the shank from the back of a decorative button and glue it with the cut side down into the center of the flower.

Flowers in Your Hair Band

By: Sharon for Sharon Sews

Whether you're going to San Francisco or grocery shopping, this Flowers in Your Hair Band is just the thing to complete your look. This artsy flower headband is easy to make and to wear...and looks great with short and long hair!

Materials:

- A purchased applique
- Felt
- Headband
- Hot glue gun

Instructions:

1. Determine where you want the applique to be on the headband. Take note of how much of the applique will be attached to the headband.
2. Cut a shaped piece of felt to match the part of the applique that will be attached to the headband. Hot glue the felt to the back of the applique.
3. Hot glue to one side of the headband.
4. Cut a piece of felt 1" wide and 2" shorter than the shaped piece of felt. Hot glue to the back of the headband. The headband will be sandwiched between the applique and this strip of felt.

Tee Shirt Braided Headbands

By: Latrice Murphy from Latrice Murphy Designs

These Tee Shirt Braided Head Bands are a great way to use up old tee shirts. Perfect for kids and adults alike, these hair accessories are easy to make and a fun way to add some color to your outfit. Mix and match designs and colors so you always have something fun to wear, no matter what the season!

Materials:

- New or old t-shirts
- Hot glue gun
- Flower embellishments (crochet, fabric or buttons)
- Hard plastic headbands
- Scissors

Instructions:

1. Cut your t-shirt into strips and stretch to get them to roll up a bit.
2. Using 6 strands of t-shirt braid either loose or tight depending on the stretchy-ness you would like.
3. If attaching to a headband you'll wrap the ends with an extra piece of t-shirt to cover the bottom of the cut off braid.
4. If making a stretchy headband you can also use an extra piece of t-shirt to cover your overlapped seam. You can cover it with a flower or button.
5. Mix and match colors for a fun look and try different thicknesses.

Thrifty Tee Shirt Headband

By: Amanda Formaro for FaveCrafts.com

You or your little girl can wear this Thrifty Tee Shirt Headband. Old tee shirt crafts like this are great for those special tees that mean so much, but that you'll never wear again. Now you can simply wear them differently! T-shirt crafts like this are easy, fun, and great for girls to do together or with their mom.

Materials:

- Recycled T-shirts
- Plain headband
- Hot glue gun
- Scissors

Instructions:

1. Cut t-shirt into long strips about 3/4" wide.
2. Glue the end of a strip to the inside end of the headband, about an inch up the band. Fold strip around the band end and glue to the outside as well, this will tack it in place.
3. Gluing as you go, tightly wrap the strip around the headband. If you run out of shirt-strip before finishing, simply tack the end of the first strip in place and begin with another until the headband is completely covered.
4. Rubber band or tie three strips together then braid them. Glue the braid to the top of the head band. Carefully trim the ends and glue in place.

Look of Vintage Floral Headband

By: Linda Peterson from Linda Peterson Designs

Add a touch of class to your wardrobe with a homemade Look of Vintage Floral Headband. You can never go wrong with wearable crafts. Ideas for sprucing up your wardrobe have never been this cute! Wear one throughout spring and summer.

Materials:

- Aleene's Original Tacky Glue
- Cheese cloth – dyed to color of choice
- Headband
- Torn strips of muslin – dyed to color of choice
- Eyelash trim or trim of choice
- Miscellaneous beads and embellishments
- Scissors
- Bow

Instructions:

1. Mix 3 parts water to 1 part Original Aleene's Tacky Glue. You can adjust the stiffness by the amount of water you add to the glue. Dip cheese cloth into glue mixture and squeeze out as much liquid as possible.
2. Lay onto a non-stick sheet and arrange cheese cloth to look like a leaf. Allow to dry.
3. While the leaf is drying, coil strips of torn muslin and glue to form a vintage rose.
4. Glue pearl beads to center of flower.
5. Glue rose to eyelash trim. Attach stiffened leaves to flower where desired with glue. Glue rose to headband. Allow glue to dry.

Holographic Ribbon Headband

By: Kreinik

Add a bit of sparkle to a store-bought headband with holographic ribbon. You can weave the holographic ribbon through an open design or wrap the ribbon around the headband.

Materials:

- Headband
- Kreinik 1/8" Ribbon in holographic colors
- Large-eye needle

Instructions:

1. This headband came from a discount store with the green ribbon already attached. We simply threaded our needle with the 1/8" Ribbon, and tied one end into a knot. Starting at one end, work that knot into the backside of the green ribbon, bring your needle up to the top, and begin weaving it in and out of the suede ribbon.
2. End by securing your thread and tucking the end under the green ribbon.
3. Kreinik Treasure Tape (double-sided tape) is your best friend in many craft projects. Use it here to wrap extra ribbon on the ends to hide the pointed ends (raw edges) of your headband embellishment.
4. If you buy a plain plastic headband and embroider a strip of ribbon or fabric, the easiest way to secure that embellished fabric to the headband is with Treasure Tape. Buy 1/4" or 1/2" tape to match the thickness of your headband.

Wool Roving Dreadlocks

By: Maria Nerius

Dreadlocks are a fun way to cure a bad hair day without making it a permanent situation! Use your imagination for this hair craft and try making these Wool Roving Dreadlocks out of all kinds of wool roving!

Materials:

- Wool roving
- Liquid soap (do not use antibacterial soaps)
- Hot water
- Sink with running water
- Hair findings of your choice (ponytail bands, bobby pins, etc)
- Ruler
- Scissor
- Towel

Instructions:

1. Decide on your hair finding. You are going to create the dreadlock on the item, then you'll have an easy way to attach it to your hair. You can do a single dreadlock on a bobby pin or multiply dreadlocks on a pony or pigtail band. You'll attach with a larks head knot before felting.
2. Decide on long you want the dreadlock to be. Pull, measure, and cute roving to length (the roving will probably lengthen as you work it so cut this measurement a little short of your goal length. And remember if you are going to be folding the length at center onto the hair finding (larks head knot) you should do this now.
3. Add liquid soap to hot water. Add around 2 T per gallon of water. Place the length of roving into the hot water to soak, you do want it saturated. Once completely wet, pick up one end of the roving and start to rub and agitate the wool roving into a tip. If you've attached to a hair finding you'll do one end at a time.

4. Place the roving onto your towel. Keep rolling, rubbing, and making the fibers move and bond. Once the dreadlock is shaped and firm as you like, rinse in clean water. Allow to dry.
5. Attach dreadlock to your choice of hair finding.

Recycled Polka Dot Headpiece

By: Savannah Starr

Channel your inner goddess and create a Recycled Polka Dot Headpiece! This creative accessory can be created using cardboard from a cereal box. Recycled craft ideas have never looked so stylish and funky!

Materials:

- Aleene's Original Tacky Glue
- Cardboard (I used a cereal box)
- Hole punch – 1" circle (or design of your choice), small punch (for jump rings)
- Pencil with eraser
- Acrylic paint – black
- Paint brush
- Paper plate
- Glitter – black (or color of your choice)
- Rhinestones
- Jewelry findings: jump rings, jewelry chain, fishhook earring findings
- Jewelry pliers

Instructions:

1. Punch circles from cardboard. You will need two circles for each pendant.
2. Punch small hole into top of circles. Be sure to line the circles up and punch in the same spot.
3. To add dimension to circles, place one at a time in the palm of your hand. Press in the center of the circle with your thumb.
4. I also like to use the eraser end of a pencil to press along the outside edge which gives more dimension, too.
5. Paint each circle black. Let dry. Brush glue over painted side.
6. Place on plate and sprinkle with glitter. Shake off excess. Let dry.

7. Glue two glittered circles together lining up the punched holes.
8. Glue rhinestones in place. Let dry. Insert jump rings through holes. To create headpiece, attach jump ring to chain. To create earrings, attach fishhook earring findings. For my headpiece, I also created smaller glittered pendants to hang on my headpiece chain. To wear the headpiece, use bobby pins to pin into hair.

Kitty Clip-on Barrettes

By: Megan Nicolay

These cute Kitty Clip-on Barrettes are purrfect for Halloween and children's birthday parties! You can make them any color and even add sparkles. It's fast, fun, and easy to decorate these delightful barrettes.

Materials:

- Pen or pencil
- Scrap of paper
- Colorful felt
- All-purpose scissors
- Fabric scissors
- Metal snap barrettes
- Aleene's Fabric Fusion fabric glue
- Tulip Fashion Glitter Shimmer Transfer Sheets
- Pressing cloth
- Iron

Instructions:

1. Use the pen and paper to sketch out a slightly rounded triangle, about 2" high. Add 1/2" at the base of the triangle and then mirror the shape below it to create the template. Cut it out with the all-purpose scissors. (You can also fold the paper at the base after you've drawn the top triangle and the extended base, and cut around the shape through both layers.)
2. Fold over the felt and lay the template on top of the folded section. Use the fabric scissors to cut around the template, through both layers
3. Mark and cut a second template, in the shape of a rounded triangle, about 1/4" smaller on all sides than the original triangle in Step 1.
4. Select a color from the iron-on glitter sheets and trace the second template twice onto the shiny surface. Use the all-purpose scissors to cut them out. Peel away the shiny surface layer and arrange them on the felt ear pieces. Lay a pressing cloth over the ears, and press firmly with the iron for about 40 seconds. (Repeat if necessary to set the glitter transfer.)

5. Clip the metal barrettes in the center, on each side of each felt ear piece, so that the top of the barrette corresponds to the wrong side of the ear piece and vice versa. Generously apply fabric glue around the edge of the wrong side of the ear piece. (Felt absorbs a lot of the glue, so don't hold back!)
6. Fold the ear piece around the top of the barrette to seal the glue, and repeat on the second barrette.
7. Let dry. Optional: Clip the layers together with extra barrette clips while the glue dries!
8. Quick! Try them on before the actual cat who's been helping you craft gets a little too interested and starts batting them off your workspace

Floral Hair Accessories

Charming Hair Flower

By: Doris Sander for Jenni Bowlin Studios

Make flowers from fabric with this charming hair flower project. This adorable bloom makes a great hair accessory for a little girl!

Materials:

- Fabric scraps
- Thread
- Needle
- Scissors
- JBS Charms

Instructions:

1. I used leftover fabric bits--the teeniest tiniest bits in my stash. They were all about one inch wide by 4 to 10 inches long. I didn't have enough of any one print, so I pulled several pieces of the same color but different prints together. This turned out to make quite a cool look. So to get started, first you will need to cut pointy "teeth" along one side of all your strips.
2. Next you will run a simple basting stitch along the straight edge of your fabric. When you pull the fabric tight it will gather. I used some old cotton thread that I acquired from my mother.
3. When you have as much gathered length as you think you will need, tie it off. Leave a length of thread hanging though in case you decide that you need to add more fabric. Now start rolling the fabric onto itself and repeatedly stitching through the base to keep it together.
4. Once you're done, sew a few JBS Charms in the center! Sew Charming!

- Headband or ribbon
- Bead or button

Instructions:

1. Cut out a 2in felt circle and about 20 inches of lace trim. The lace trim can be found at most fabric stores and comes in many different colors and sizes.
2. Apply glue around one corner. Place the lace trims raw edge directly on the glue. Keep gluing (about an inch at a time) and follow the curve with the lace, pressing it down as you go.
3. Angle the lace down slightly and keep gluing around the circle till you reach the center and have a full flower.
4. I cut my lace here, so I could leave room for a button.
5. Then I glued the button in the center and applied stretchy elastic to the back. You could also add a clip or pin. There are so many different things you could do with these flowers. Attach them to a purse, put them on pillows... get creative!

Oilcloth and Mesh Bow

By: Marisa Pawelko of Modern Surrealist LLC

Create a decorative bow with oilcloth and mesh to decorate a gift, use as a decorative accent or wear as an accessory.

Materials:

- Eileen Hulls Sizzix Scoreboard Bow Die
- Westcott Titanium Non-Stick Shears
- Cardstock
- Marvy Uchida Brush Markers
- Art Glitter Ultrafine Neon Glitter
- Crushed Velvet
- Mexican oilcloth
- Mesh Tulle
- Fabric Mod Podge
- Paper Mod Podge
- Blumenthal Lansing Favorite Findings Buttons
- Wire twist tie

Instructions:

1. Color a pattern on one side of paper with Marvy Uchida Brush markers. For the mesh pieces, color both sides of the paper, since the paper shows through the mesh.
2. Apply paper to pieces of velvet, mesh tulle and oilcloth using Fabric Mod Podge and let dry.
3. Brush on Paper Mod Podge over marker pattern and apply ultrafine neon glitter by Art Glitter and let dry.
4. Run the finished layered pieces through a Sizzix Big Shot machine using the Bow die from the Eileen Hull Sizzix Scoreboards collection.
5. Layer buttons from Blumenthal Lansing with the custom buttons you just made using the bow die (which cuts both bow strips and buttons) by threading through a 12" piece of coordinating wire twist tie. Then add the bow strips, starting with the small size and be sure to twist the strips for the 3D bow effect. You can also lie them flat for a more low profile bow.

6. Finally pull everything tight from the back and twist in place to secure all the pieces. Now you are left with a beautiful decorative bow which can be used for a variety of purposes.

Fabric Flower Hairbands

By: Cecilia for So Tei-Tei

Make flowers from fabric to decorate your hair in style! These fabric flower hairbands are pretty enough for a little girl, but chic enough for a fashionista.

Materials:

- Gauze
- Needle
- Thread
- Button
- Hot glue gun and glue (optional)
- Hairband (optional)
- Felt (optional)

Instructions:

1. Cut a 10 x 1.5 inches strip of gauze (gauze can be ripped, it gives a nice finishing).
2. Use needle and thread to make long stitches along the edge (not the ripped edge, leave that one for the outside).
3. Pull the thread to gather the fabric.
4. Starting from one end, overlap the fabric to form a spiral.
5. Stitch to secure in place and sew or hot glue a button in the center.
6. Optional: Hot glue flower to a hairband, then attach a piece of felt to secure.

Flower Power Accessory

By: Maya Murillo for I Love to Create

Show off your flower power this with this amazing hair accessory! This accent is perfect for a barrette, headband, as a pin or even on a purse! With a fabulous project like this, the possibilities are endless.

Materials:

- CraftyChica or Tulip Glitter
- Aleene's Tacky Glue OR
- Crafty Chica Extreme Embellishment Glue
- Tulip Fabric Markers
- Pin backs or hair clips or a headband

Instructions:

1. Separate the petals on all the flowers as shown, and saving the pistil.
2. Next, add some more color POP using Tulip Beads In A Bottle! This is definitely going to turn heads!
3. For each color, decorate it in a different way to add contrast in the design. From experimenting, I found it was easier to use Aleene's Brush On Tacky Glue to apply the glitter!
4. I used Tulip Fabric Markers to draw on some cute designs. Let the petals dry before placing them together.
5. After they are all dry, and stack them in contrasting colors and by size. You can also trim with scissors if you need to, anything to make them look good! Then, glue on any backing of your choice.
6. Ta Dah! Here they are! Now I'm ready to enjoy spring time the appropriate way! You can use these as pins, the final touch on a shirt, hat, or purse. OR you can even attach them back on to the stems to make a bouquet!

Scrap Fabric Rosette

By: Amy Renea for A Nest for All Seasons

This cute Scrap Fabric Rosette can be added to anything, from purses to shoes, tee shirts to head bands! This is also a great way to use up cheap fabric scraps that are too small to use for other projects. Make a beautiful bouquet for spring!

Materials:

- Fabric Scraps
- Scissors
- Hot Glue

Instructions:

1. Cut a scrap into a square...no need for perfection, but it needs to be squarer than rectangle.
2. Now simply use fabric scissors, start at the outside edge and create a curly cue.
3. Start rolling with the ugly outside edge. You want to save the nice inner circle for the end.
4. Roll the ugly outside part into the middle of the flower.
5. Keep wrapping around and around until the petals start to have a nice curled edge.
6. Every once in a while press the flower down on the front to even out the layers.
7. Tuck that perfect end piece onto the back with a dab of hot glue to cover up the mess.

Scrap Fabric Hair Accessories

By: Stephenie Hamen for FaveCrafts.com

Save up those fabric scraps to create cute and funky DIY hair accessories. Whether you choose to make your own fascinator or barrettes (or both), you'll love creating these Scrap Fabric Hair Accessories. You only need a little bit of fabric for this project, so be sure to dip into your stash before heading out to the craft store. Flower craft ideas never go out of season, so be sure to rock your hair accessories whenever you need a hint of spring. You can also place one in a little girl's hair for a fun touch.

Materials:

- Barrette base
- Felt
- Fabric
- Buttons
- Hot glue

Instructions:

6. Begin by cutting and tearing your fabric into 1"-1 ½" strips.
7. Glue the end of one strip to a spot on the felt.
8. Begin tightly wrapping and twisting the fabric to create a rosette.
9. Add a pretty button to the center.
10. Continue by creating two more rosettes that are adjacent to the first.
11. Trim felt from underneath to create the base.
12. Cut another small piece of felt and use this to glue the barrette or hair clip to the back of the rosettes.
